

Remembrance Day in Canada

Written by David James Pallister

Illustrated by i Cenizal

Remembrance Day is an important day for Canadians in early November. We chose this day to take time to remember all the men and women who have fought for Canada. It is important to remember all the people who worked so hard to keep Canada safe and free.

The Poppy is a part of Remembrance Day. It is a flower that grew on the battlefields and the graves of soldiers in World War One. We wear it to remember the men and women who died protecting Canada in wars.

The wreath is a part of Remembrance Day. It is a round decoration that we place on monuments during Remembrance Day ceremonies.

